

Yes, Bro. Hilburn is sarcastic; but not offensively so.

The boys are not yet in Berlin, but "they're on their way."

THE State goes "wet" by 73,000 majority. To this majority Iron county contributes 248. Good enough for these days of statutory morality and neighborly restriction.

It is gratifying to learn that the Allies will mete out just punishment to the individual Hun guilty of atrocity. Over five hundred names of German officers are already listed, and they will have to stand trial before a tribunal instituted for the purpose. Give the ravishers and the murderers the limit!

A CERTAIN St. Louis preacher wants the bible to be taught in the public schools. Good idea! Then we can do away with the Church and Sunday School and save great expense. The kind of bible—Catholic, Protestant or Jewish? Never mind! We can easily settle that by the State enacting that we shall all be of one faith.

This year all Europe is partaking Thanksgiving with us—Uncle Samuel contributing a generous proportion of the dinner. Let us be truly and heartily thankful and fervently breathe the prayer, "On earth peace; good will toward men." We can't love our defeated enemies—not just yet—but we can demonstrate to the world the difference between civilization and "kultured" Hunism.
